

Figure 1: The axial view of the patient's CT abdomen image showing inflamed epiploic appendages in the descending colon (Green circle). The image shows an ovoid structure next to the colon with a hyperattenuating ring sign (thin high-density rim). There is surrounding fat stranding and thickening of the adjoining peritoneum with a central hyperdense dot.